During the day of the

Land Grants and the History of the East Mountains

*September 3rd 2011, from 9:00-11:00am
at Sabino Canyon Open Space*

Land Grants are a significant part of New Mexico's history that has shaped the way we continue to manage land today. UNM history professor and member of the Cañón de Carnué Land Grant Board of Directors LM Garcia y Griego will lead this walk at Sabino Canyon painting the picture of the past land holdings, struggles throughout time, and current status of Land Grants in the East Mountains.

Agenda:

- Explore the west side of the property and learn about the history of the Riedmont Fur Farm and current projects at Sabino Canyon.
- Continue to the east side of the property to hear about the Cañón de Carnué Land Grant and greater history of the area.

All participants will receive a free copy of Sabino Canyon Open Space: An Interpretive Guide.
